Incident Summary: On 08/25/2023 at 2:23pm a stolen yellow GMC Savana box truck, driven by a male adult with a male adult passenger, was traveling south on Parsons Ave. when it struck a City of Columbus Police Cruiser. The box truck fled the scene and traveled north on Ann St. The box truck failed to stop at the stop sign at Ann St. and Frebis Ave. A gray Honda Civic, driven by a female adult with a male adult passenger, was traveling east on Frebis Ave. when the box truck ran the stop sign. The box truck and Civic collided in the intersection. The box truck then proceeded north on Ann St. striking a parked white Chrysler 300. The female and male occupants of the Civic were transported to Grant Hospital in stable condition with serious injuries.

The Columbus Division of Police Accident Investigation Unit responded to the crash scene and initiated an investigation.

This crash remains under investigation.
